

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE Mineral Hill Development Co. of Arizona.

Whereas, N. E. Ferguson and P. K. Klinefelter have become associated together for a certain undertaking and for the better carrying on of same, the undersigned have agreed to organize a corporation under the Territory of Arizona laws.

NOW, THEREFORE, KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:—
I, That we, the undersigned, do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a partnership under the general laws of the Territory of Arizona; the name of which company shall be the MINERAL HILL DEVELOPMENT CO., and the principal place of transacting business of which corporation shall be Kingman, Mohave County, and other offices may be established at any points selected by Board of Directors.

II The general business to be transacted by said corporation is to purchase, lease, locate and otherwise acquire mineral lands and mining claims; to explore lands for minerals and metals; to mine for minerals and metals; to extract, concentrate and reduce; to buy and sell and deal in ores, minerals and metals; to erect, maintain and operate smelters and other plants, to treat and reduce ores; to purchase, lease, locate, appropriate, develop, or otherwise to acquire water and water rights, and the same to sell and convey; to acquire by purchase or otherwise mill sites, dam sites, or reservoir sites; rights of way for ditches, conduits, aqueducts, pipe lines and canals; to erect and maintain telegraph and telephone lines and electric light and power lines, and acquire by combination or otherwise rights of way for such lines; to erect and maintain plants for operating telephone and telegraph systems, and electric power plants in connection with the mining operations of the company, to build, maintain and operate wire, cable, or other tramway or railroads to be operated and run by electricity, steam, gravitation or otherwise, leading from its principal works or place of business to some navigable stream, or to some existing railroad, turnpike, or public highway; to condemn land necessary for the construction of any such tramway or railroad, and for all purposes necessary and convenient in the operation thereof; to acquire by lease or otherwise lands and rights for tunnels, and all appurtenances thereto incident and appertaining; to sell, exchange, lease and grant licenses, privileges and interests in and to any of the properties and rights acquired by the corporation; to carry on the business of merchandising and general trading to lay out towns and townships, and to sell and dispose of lots therein and improvements on the same; to borrow money; to make and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, debentures and obligations, and other evidences of indebtedness of every kind and description necessary or convenient in the conduct of its business, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, or otherwise; to acquire, hold and sell stock in other corporations, and to hold, acquire and sell bonds and other securities and evidences of indebtedness.

III The amount of capital stock of said corporation shall be two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into two hundred and fifty thousand shares of one dollar each, provided further that said capital stock may be paid into this corporation either in cash, or services, or by sale and transfer of real or personal property to the corporation for the uses and purposes of the corporation as the Board of Directors may determine. When so many of stock shall have been paid for, in any of said ways, certificate of such shares may be issued, and the shares so issued shall thereupon and thereby become and be fully paid, and non-assessable, and in the absence of actual fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the directors as to the value of the property shall be conclusive. The stockholders may vote by written proxy for the election of Directors, and for the transaction of any business that may properly come before the stockholders meeting.

IV The time of commencement of the said corporation shall be the time of the filing of the certified copy of these articles, in the office of the auditor of said Territory, and the time of the determination of this corporation shall be twenty-five years from the date of such filing.

V The affairs of said corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors, consisting of five stockholders who shall be elected annually on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of April. The Directors so selected shall hold a Directors' meeting immediately following that of stockholders and elect from among themselves a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. It being further provided that any one Director may hold two offices, and those to serve until their successors will be elected at annual meeting will be as follows:

J. W. Carr, President.
P. K. Klinefelter, Vice President.
N. E. Ferguson, Secretary and Treasurer.
C. A. Sheppard.

VI The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which said corporation shall at any time subject itself shall be two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

VII Private property of the stockholders of said corporation shall be exempt from the debts of said corporation.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our names this 26th day of November, 1906.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE Victor Gold Mining Company.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:—
That we, the undersigned, have this day associated ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation, and for that purpose do adopt the following charter:

FIRST: The name of the corporation shall be VICTOR GOLD MINING COMPANY.

SECOND: The names of the incorporators are A. L. WHITE, THOMAS EWING, and J. H. RICHARDS.

THIRD: The principal place in which the business of the corporation within the Territory of Arizona is to be transacted is at Vivian, in Mohave County, Arizona. The name of the agent in charge thereof, and upon whom process may be served in any action, suit, or proceeding that may come against the company in any of the courts of Arizona, is W. E. EWING, residing at the town of Vivian, Territory of Arizona.

FOURTH: The general nature of the business in which this corporation shall engage is as follows, to wit:

(a) To acquire, own, enter, locate, bond, and lease mining property, mines, mining claims and mineral lands of every kind and description.
(b) To acquire, own, enter, locate, bond, or lease mill sites, water rights, rights of way for ditches, dams, flumes, tunnels, shafts or drifts, transmission lines, telephone lines, or terminal facilities, and such tramways, railways and wagon roads as may be necessary to connect the principal works of the company with adjacent highways, railways and streams.
(c) To acquire, own, build, bond or lease such real or personal property as may be proper or necessary to the proper or convenient conduct of the business of this corporation;
(d) To work, prospect, drain or develop mines and mineral lands of every kind or description, either for this corporation or for other companies, corporations, or individuals, upon such terms or for such remuneration as may be deemed best by this corporation;
(e) To do every thing that may be proper or necessary in the conduct of its business in the way of locating, acquiring, buying or bonding, leasing or selling mineral lands, mining claims, mining claims and mining property of every kind and description, and in developing, prospecting, draining, working or operating such mines or mineral lands and producing ore and mineral therefrom, or in refining such ores and minerals to the most profitable merchantable value, and in doing the same, to contract, build, buy, sell, bond, lease, own, acquire, and operate all necessary buildings, sawmills, mills, smelters, machinery, dams, ditches, flumes, pipe lines, power plants, electric light plants, transmission lines, telephone lines, and such other property as may be proper, convenient or necessary in carrying out the purposes or business herein stated, and to construct such tramways, railways and wagon roads as may be necessary to connect the principal works of the company with adjacent highways, railways and streams;
(f) To generate, sell or lease electric power and transmit the same to place of use;
(g) To buy, sell, mill, smelt, reduce, treat or otherwise handle ores and minerals of all kinds;
(h) To sell, bond, lease, hypothecate, or mortgage all or any part of their property, both real and personal, acquired or owned by this corporation, and to do all and every thing necessary, suitable or convenient for the accomplishment of the purpose, or any one or more of the purposes herein enumerated or incidental thereto;

FIFTH: The authorized amount of capital stock of this corporation shall be One Million Dollars, divided into two hundred thousand (200,000) shares of the par value of Five (5.00) Dollars each. The Board of Directors may cause said capital stock or any part thereof to be subscribed or paid for in cash, in the purchase or exchange or transfer of real or personal property or for services rendered, and to issue or cause to be issued any part or all of the capital stock as required, at any time or from time to time, and when so issued it shall be fully paid, and non-assessable, and in the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors as to the value of the property purchased or transferred or exchanged or services rendered shall be conclusive. Shares of stock may be voted by proxy at all stockholders' meetings.

SIXTH: The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the date of the filing of a certified copy of these articles of incorporation in the office of the Territorial Auditor of Arizona, and termination thereof shall be twenty-five years thereafter.

SEVENTH: The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors, who shall be elected annually by the stockholders at the annual stockholders' meeting.

EIGHTH: The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held on the third Tuesday in November of each year, and may be held at the City of Denver, County of Denver, State of Colorado, or at the Town of Vivian, County of Mohave, Territory of Arizona, as may from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors.

NINTH: The highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which this corporation is at any time subject, shall be Three Hundred Thousand ($300,000) Dollars.

TENTH: The private property of the stockholders of this corporation shall be exempt from corporate debts of any kind whatever.
